Customer Reviews

This puzzle project book for scroll saw users features dinosaurs. It is a reprint (with some updates) of Dinosaur Puzzles for the Scroll Saw by the same authors (2002). The new book adds puzzles for Therizinosaurus, Spinosaurus, Quetzalcoatlus, Lambeosaurus, Iguanodon and Anzu Wylie but leaves out the Oviraptor and Pachyrhinosaur from the first book. The Toys section at the end may be nice but it's unnecessary. The puzzle patterns are repeated but without the lines for breaking them into puzzle pieces. Since the original book has been out of print for a while this new edition is welcome for those who like to make toys out of wood. However, if you don't have a scroll saw the only way you can use this book is to buy a high quality coping saw and have a lot of patience.
